Canadian Centre for Child Protection

The Canadian Centre for Child Protection is a national charity dedicated to the personal safety of all children.

- Take a look at their renewed classroom resources.
- Through NeedHelpNow.ca, youth of all ages can connect with support services and get help when they've experienced online sexualized violence.
- Youth can report to Cybertip.ca if they or someone they know is experiencing sexualized victimization online.

Networks of Inquiry and Indigenous Education

The Networks of Inquiry and Indigenous Education \(NOIIE\) is a voluntary network of inquiry-based schools and school districts in British Columbia, with partner networks around the world. Using an inquiry-oriented, evidence-based approach to learning and teaching through the Spiral of Inquiry, teams work towards improving outcomes for all learners in their settings and submit case studies to share their progress in a spirit of generosity, curiosity and growth.

The NOIIE hosts Morning Inquiry Coffee Chats, intellectual fuel to support inquiry at your site, on the first and third Wednesday of each month on Zoom, from 7:45 – 8:15 am. Contact Angela or Barb for Zoom link: Angela (astott@sd74.bc.ca) | Barb (bahamblett@sd73.bc.ca)

Sir David Attenborough's urgent message in song

Sir David Attenborough's inspirational message about the urgent need to address climate change has been set to music by former UK educator Brian Beresford, as a free song for all schools and children.

A group of children from Whalley CE Primary School in Lancashire was given the honour of recording the special song. Brian Beresford explained that he wanted to help children to understand the climate emergency and to share Sir David's inspiration with those singing and hearing the song.
